Practice Question Cards

Print, cut along the dashed lines, practice out loud. Score yourself kindly: rough is where practice starts, not where it fails.

Do one card at a time. Say the whole answer out loud — thinking it is a different skill than saying it. Then circle where you honestly landed. On a good day, rough-to-solid in three tries is normal. The playful-to-ready scale below is the one the whole pack uses: 1 = it came out rough (fine!) · 2 = got there eventually · 3 = solid · 4 = ready to say in the room

CARD 1

Tell me about yourself.

They're asking "how does this person talk about their own story" — usually first.

1	2	3	4
rough, that's fine	got there	solid	ready

One thing to tweak on my next try, not three:

CARD 2

Why do you want this job?

Name something real about THIS company or role — the research sheet on page one feeds this one.

1	2	3	4
rough, that's fine	got there	solid	ready

One thing to tweak on my next try:

CARD 3

Tell me about a mistake you made and what you did next.

They're checking: does this person fix things or hide from them? Owning it fast is the answer.

1	2	3	4
rough, that's fine	got there	solid	ready

One thing to tweak on my next try:

CARD 4

Describe a hard moment with a coworker or customer.

Aim for "stayed calm, heard the person, found a repair." No villains needed.

1	2	3	4
rough, that's fine	got there	solid	ready

One thing to tweak on my next try:

CARD 5

Tell me about a time you led without a title.

Use your STAR worksheet — no official title needed for this one; leading a moment counts.

1	2	3	4
rough, that's fine	got there	solid	ready

One thing to tweak on my next try:

CARD 6

How do you handle an impossible deadline?

They want to hear "sort, speak up early, drop the right things." Planning beats panic.

1	2	3	4
rough, that's fine	got there	solid	ready

One thing to tweak on my next try:

CARD 7

What's something you're still learning?

A real one, plus "here's how I'm working on it." Human, not heroic, and not fatal.

1	2	3	4
rough, that's fine	got there	solid	ready

One thing to tweak on my next try:

CARD 8

Do you have any questions for us?

Asking good questions is half the interview. Steal two from the "Questions You Should Ask" sheet.

1	2	3	4
rough, that's fine	got there	solid	ready

One thing to tweak on my next try:

Cards that land a "1" the first time are your practice schedule for tomorrow — that's all a "1" means. Nobody keeps score after the cards go in the bin.
